

PART 5... MAKE LOVE, NOT WAR!

In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus was calling people to a relationship with Him that will affect their relationship with others.

~ Haddon W. Robinson

The Beatles said "All you need is love" – and then they broke up.

~ Larry Norman

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus is not just giving moral commands. He is unveiling a whole new way of being human. No wonder it looks strange. But Jesus himself pioneered it, and invites us to follow.

~ N.T. Wright

We need the teaching of Jesus today more than ever. Our society has rejected biblical conceptions of both love and marriage. Love has become a mixture of physical desire and vague sentimentality; marriage has become a provisional sexual union to be terminated when this pathetic, pygmy love dissolves.

~ D.A. Carson

The truly erotic is the mingling of souls.

~ Dallas Willard

Lust is one of the features of the human psyche that can masquerade as ultimate, and this is so because the passionate intensity involved can easily be mistaken for the centred self.

~ Carl G. Vaught

For Jesus, the deeper question in ethics and identity always concerns who you are, not what you did do or can do. What would you do if you could?

~ Dallas Willard

Love is an ideal thing; marriage is a real thing. A confusion of the real with the ideal never goes unpunished.

~ Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe

My wife and I were happy for twenty years. Then we met.

~ Rodney Dangerfield

Men and women, women and men, it will never work.

~ Erica Jong

Take me or leave me; or, as is the usual order of things, both.

~ Dorothy Parker

By all means, marry; if you get a good wife you will become happy; if you get a bad one, you will become a philosopher.

~ Socrates

One of the most important things a church can do is model a communal life in which relationships are coming together rather than breaking apart.

~ Richard B. Gardner

We are stardust, we are golden, and we've got to get ourselves back to the garden.

~ Joni Mitchell

I am the Way.

~ Jesus
