

Part 4: Committing To Growth

The key to a growing relationship with God is to release your life to all of God and of His will that you know. Don't worry about the unknown; simply respond to what he has revealed.

~ Henry Blackaby

I believe with all my heart that God's people possess God's provision to accomplish and fulfill God's purposes in the world.

~ Joel Vestal

I judge all things only by the price they shall gain in eternity.

~ John Wesley

Things themselves do not remain, but their effects do. Turn the things you have into eternal effects.

~ John Chrysostom (347-407 CE)

The principle is timeless - there is a powerful relationship between a person's true spiritual condition and his attitude and actions concerning money and possessions.

~ Randy Alcorn

Make as much as you can, save as much as you can, and give as much as you can.

~ John Wesley

Riches and abundance come hypocritically clad in sheep's clothing pretending to be security against anxieties; and they then become the very object of those anxieties.

~ Soren Kierkegaard

The lust for affluence in contemporary society is psychotic. It is time we awaken to the fact that conformity to a sick society is to be sick.

~ Richard Foster

There is no such thing as 'private' lifestyle choices. We do indeed live in an interdependent interconnected world in which our decisions impact the lives of people half a world away.

~ Christine Sine

My experience was that the less I spent on myself and the more I gave to others, the fuller of happiness and blessing did my soul become.

~ Hudson Taylor

He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose.

~ Jim Elliot

If you try to save your life, you will destroy it. But if you give up your life for me and for the good news, you will save it.

~ Jesus
